

Christian Anzinger, born in Linz (Austria), graduated with honors from "Brucknerkonservatorium" in Linz. Later he studied at Musikhochschule in Vienna with Franz Samohyl and at "Meadowmount School" in Lewis (USA) with Ivan Galamian.

He has collaborated with "Bad Hall" Chamber Orchestra and "Bruckner" Orchestra. He has held concerts throughout Europe as member of "Passau String Quartet". He has also performed as soloist for ORF.

In Italy he has collaborated with the orchestra of the Rome Opera House and with "I Solisti Aquilani".

He has been teaching in conservatories since 1986 (Bolzano, Matera, Reggio Calabria, Monopoli): he is currently teacher (major violin) at "Giuseppe Verdi" conservatory of music in Milan.