

Clara Kim, pianist and Opera music coach. Born in Seoul in South Korea, she graduated from Kyung Hee University. Later she moved to Italy where she graduated from “Verdi” Conservatory of Music in Milan (major piano). She has also collaborated with Accademia Teatro alla Scala. She has been teacher at Kyung Hee University and at National Music & Art College of Korea. Mrs. Kim is often invited to serve as juror of international competitions as: Renata Tebaldi, Città di Palermo, etc. She founded Re Sejong Competition and has organized more than 120 music events all over the world. She has been director of “G. Donizetti” Music Academy in Milan for more than 25 years.