

Camilla Marone Bianco started her musical studies with Romano Beggino at “Magni” Music School in Borgosesia. Later she graduated with first class honours from “Cantelli” Conservatory of Music in Novara in the class of Vincenzo Cerutti. She also studied with Giorgio Sogno, Mirella Greco, Siavush Gadjiev and Vincenzo Balzani. She attended master classes held by Vincenzo Balzani and by Leonel Morales in Granada (Spain). She has been official pianist of “Cantores Mundi” Choir conducted by the late Mino Bordignon and of “Valsesia Musica” and “Monterosa – Kawai” International Competitions. She has been first prize winner of several international competitions as: “Stresa”, “Osimo”, “Valsesia Musica” among the others. Acclaimed member of chamber ensembles she regularly performs in Italy and abroad, worth to be mentioned her French tour with “Les pleiades” Trio (Sheida Davis cello, David Chivers, violin).